About Gallery:

The CLOSER GALLERY is a small-scale art space located in central downtown of Beijing, China. With It is a comprehensive concern that integrating 3 aspects of function: contemporary jewellery art gallery, concept store and art studio, its establishment , since 2017, has organised the solo exhibitions for more than 20 times, which involves both Chinese and oversea artists. In addition, the year-end themed group show is also a fixed annual project of the gallery to present its uniqueness and concentration of curatorship. The goal of it is not only to promote the contemporary jewellery culture in China, but also to narrow the distance between jewellery art and the public through well-planned exhibitions and related events, that channels and joints the relationship between China and the world from a local perspective and with a global vision, the artists, jewellery enthusiasts and collectors are therefore being married with deep communications and interactions.
